Hanover, August 19.

THE King of Prussia set out from Herenhausen Yesterday Morning, to return to his own Dominions; a tripple Discharge of the Cannon on our Ramparts being made at his Departure. The King has been pleased to appoint the Earl Stanhope, the Lord Carteret, and Sir Robert Sutton, to be his Majesty's Ambassadours Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries at the Congress at Cambray. His Majesty has been pleased to constitute the Lord Polwarth, who has for some Years resided at Copenhagen with the Character of his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary, his Ambassadour to the King of Denmark.

Paris, Sept. 4, N. S. On the 2d Instant at Night, the Duke Regent lay for the first time in his Apartments in the Palace of the Tuilleries, and was at the King's Levee Yesterday Morning; after which his Royal Highness held a Council of the Finances in his own Apartment, at which the Marshal de Villeroy assisted. The Parliament at Pontoise having put off the Examination of the King's Declaration touching the Agreement of the Disputes upon the Pope's Constitution, from one Day to another, assembled at length on Monday last, and appointed 10 Commissioners to examine the same, and make their Report thereupon to the Company. On that Occasion two Petitions or Protestations were presented, the one on the Part of the University of Paris, and the other from the four Bishops who first made their Appeal to the future General Council. 'Tis said the Faculty of Theology will put in a separate Petition. The Parliament had Yesterday this Affair under Consideration; but some Debates arising, they have put it off again till To-Morrow. 'Tis said, that the Abbot de St. Albin is named to carry the Accommodation to the Pope, in case the Parliament agrees to it. On the 21st past a solemn Service was celebrated in the Royal Chappel for the Repose of the Soul of the late King; and on the 2d Instant the same was performed at St. Denis, the Marshals Villeroy and Villars, who were conducted thither in one of the King's Coaches, assisting in his Majesty's Name at that Ceremony. Count Bielke, Envoy Extraordinary of Sweden, had Yesterday his first Audience of the King. M. Bousquin, Chamberlain of the Czar, is arrived here with Letters from his Master to the King and the Duke Regent. An Arrêt is published for allowing 1500 Bales of Coffee, lately brought from Moca on Account of private Traders at St. Malo, under the Privilege of the Old India Company, to be sold within the Kingdom (the present Company having an exclusive Privilege for selling all Commodities from the Indies;) and at the same time it is forbidden to carry any Coffee out of the Kingdom, till the King shall order otherwise.

August 27, 1720.

His Majesty, in Pursuance of an Address of the House of Commons presented the last Session of Parliament, having commanded the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations to consider and propose some effectual Method for preventing the Exportation of Woull into foreign Parts, in order to be laid before his Majesty and both Houses of Parliament the next Session: The said Lords Commissioners having the same under Consideration, do hereby give Notice, That they have appointed every Thursday, during the Month of September, to receive Proposals from, and discourse with any Persons concerning the same, at their Office in the Cockpit at Whitehall.
